local +UM ENGLISH PROFESSOR PUBLISHES
FOURTH BOOK OF POEMS

MISSOULA--

Richard Hugo, professor of English and director of Creative Writing at the University of Montana, has received notice of the publication of his fourth book of poems, entitled "The Lady in Kicking Horse Reservoir."

The book, published by Norton Publishing Co., New York, N.Y., contains four sections of poems, the first and last dealing with Montana and its peoples.

Some of the poems included in the book are: "Camas Prairie School," "Hot Springs," "Ovando," "Dixon," "The Only Bar in Dixon," "Missoula Softball Tournament," "Bear Paw," "The Milltown Union Bar," "St. Ignatius Where the Salish Wail," "Indian Graves at Jocko," and "Degrees of Gray in Philipsburg."

Hugo's three previous books were "A Run of Jacks," "Death of the Kapowsin Tavern" and "Good Luck in Cracked Italian."

A UM faculty member since 1964, Hugo received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Washington, Seattle, in 1948 and his master's degree in 1952. He received the Theodore Roethke Prize in 1964 and a Rockefeller Award for Creative Writing in 1967-68.

The book will be available in Missoula by the middle of February, Hugo said. Copies may be obtained at the University Bookstore, Rudy's News and Freddy's Feed and Read. Cost of the paperback version is $1.95 and the hardbound is $6.95.
